Agro PP is a new, homozygous polled BS sire that traces back to the famous Starbuck Alaska EX 91, who achieved an LL of 145,451 kg of milk in 16 lactations. Agro PP impresses with high components, very good milkability, and average persistence. In addition, he has excellent daughter fertility, average calving ease, good maternal calving traits, and a functional conformation. His offspring will be medium-sized, late-maturing animals with good mobility and wide-set udders with shiny fore udders. As an added benefit, he passes on the casein variants A2/A2 and BB and has an unusual aAa code of 264.
